NEW HOSPITAL.

The Corporation has determined to raise a fund to build a handsome and well equipped structure.

ADDITION BADLY NEEDED.

The Corporation of the Joseph Ratti Hospital at its meeting on Monday took a step which will mean much, not only to Bloomsburg, but to the whole neighboring community.

The decision was made to raise a fund of twenty thousand dollars to which an additional ten thousand will undoubtedly be added by the State, to erect a new building adjoining the present structure. The old building will be used for administrative purposes, and for operating.

The building will be of brick with Indiana limestone trimmings, three stories above the basement which will be almost entirely above ground. Provision is made for four public wards, two each for male and female patients; one for male medical and one for surgical and same for female patients. Three wards will accommodate twenty patients and under extraordinary circumstances may be increased to thirty patients.

There will be fourteen rooms for private patients which are intended for one patient in each, but the rooms will be sufficiently large to accommodate two if necessity requires. The new building is also provided with an emergency room, directors' room, staff consulting room, waiting room, diet kitchens, toilet rooms, and all other requisites for a first class modern hospital. The kitchen, general dining room, boilers, etc., will be located in the basement. The new building is to be connected on the first and second floors to the present building with a wide corridor, with easy access lo the operating room which will remain where it is at present located.

An election of officers was held at the meeting on Monday at which the following gentlemen were reelected: A. Z. Schoch, president; L. N. Moyer, vice president; F. G. Yorks, treasurer, and John G. Harman, secretary.

Mr. Schoch will appoint a committee soon for the purpose of canvassing, and furthering of the building project.

LICENSE NOT REVOKED.

The hearing of the West Berwick license case took place last Saturday. Chief of Police Laub, of West Berwick, represented by Hon. Grant Herring and Clyde C. Yetter, charged M. J. Harris with violation of the liquor laws, and keeping a disorderly place which disturbed the peace of the community. The defense, represented by John G. Harman and J. L. Evans, claimed the charges were brought through personal spite. The hearing continued throughout the day.

The decision resulted in favor of the defendant, the Associate Judges voting against Judge Evans.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Miss Emma Turner, of Danville, was so frightfully burned last Friday night, when her clothing was ignited by burning oil from a lamp, that she died only a few minutes after being brought to the Joseph Ratti Hospital. Her clothing was almost entirely burned, and her flesh was charred in many places.

BLOOM POOR DIRECTORS.

Democratic Committmen Name Candidates for Directors of Bloom Poor District.

The Democratic committeemen of the district embraced in Bloom Poor District met in the Court House last Saturday afternoon, in pursuance of a call issued by County Chairman J. H. Mercer. The purpose of the meeting was to name candidates for the office of Director of Bloom Poor District.

Those present were James H. Mercer, Otto Kemper, E. M. Savidge and Clark Miller, of Bloomsburg; Bartley Albertson and W. B. Lawton, of Greenwood township; Alvin Ikeler, of Millville; Harry Dietterick and Frank Hippensteel, of Scott township; and A. B. Vansickle and F. P. Hartman, of Sugarloaf township.

The candidates for the office were Frank Drake and William Kashner, of Bloomsburg, Mr. Drake being a member of the present board and seeking a renomination; C. W. Hess and Jesse Fritz, of Sugarloaf township, and A. S. Ikeler, of Millville.

It seemed to be conceded that C. W. Hess would be one of the nominees inasmuch as Sugarloaf township had no representation on the board for years.

The contest narrowed down between Kashner and Drake. The meeting was called to order by County Chairman James H. Mercer who was made President of the meeting, and Harry Dietterick was chosen Secretary.

There being two candidates to be nominated, each committeeman could vote for two. A ballot was taken, and the result was 8 for Hess, 6 for Kashner, 4 for Drake, 2 for Fritz, and 1 for Ikeler. Hess and Kashner were declared the nominees.

CARPET MILL ADDITIONS.

Expansion and improvement always seem to be the policy of the Magee Carpet Company. Nearly every year has seen additions made to this already large and well-equipped plant, and more are now under way.

A two-story brick addition, 18x80 feet, is being placed on the tapestry weave room, and work has been started on a two-story brick addition over the dye house of the spinning mill, with each floor 18x50 feet, to be used as a picking house. Work on these additions will be rapidly rushed.

The electrification of the entire plant is being pushed forward. Already four hundred horsepower is being produced, and eight more motors aggregating 200 h. p. are expected within the next week.

MAGEE FOR PRESIDENT.

Mr. Magee has been a member of the Council for a number of years, and is thoroughly familiar with the town affairs. There has never been a more active and aggressive member than he has been.

He has always been elected by a very large vote, and if there are any other aspirants for the Mayor's chair, he will no doubt give them a lively hustle.

ANNUAL DANCE.

The Friendship Fire Co. will hold their forty-third annual dance in the Midway, on February 22nd.

School of Agriculture

Sessions Being Held in the Court House, Where Interesting Work is Done.

STRONG CORPS OF INSTRUCTORS.

The Movable School of Agriculture opened its first session in the Court House on Monday afternoon, with A. P. Young of Millville presiding, and Charles Girton, of Buckhorn, as secretary. A. L. Martin Deputy Secretary of Agriculture, and Director of the Movable Schools of Agriculture, the first speaker, outlined the program to be carried out, and discussed dairy farming.

Prof. H. E. VanNorman, in charge of dairy at State College, was the next speaker. His subject, was, "What is the Profit in Dairying?"

Prof. C. W. Larson, of State College, gave an address on "Farm Buttermaking," and was followed by Dr. M. E. Conrad, of West Grove, Pa., who talked interestingly on the question, "Why the farmers cannot purchase good cows," stating the reason was that the cattle were worth more money elsewhere. He then answered a number of practical questions.

TUESDAY'S SESSION.

The morning session was opened by a talk by Dr. A L. Martin on "How to Raise Red Clover."

He was followed by Professor C. W. Larson, of State College, who discussed butter making and butter scoring.

Professor H. E. VanNorman then talked on "The Proper Feeding of Dairy Cows."

In the afternoon eighty-six farmers journeyed to Grovania and paid a visit to the stock farm of T. E. Hyde. Here Professor Van Norman used cows to demonstrate the method of scoring them as to their good or bad points. He gave the farmers an opportunity of scoring, and learning how to recognize a good animal. For two hours his hearers stood in the cold, with no lack of interest, and were enthusiastic in the work.

The evening session was an interesting one, at which Dr. Martin discussed "How can we grow more corn in Columbia County?"; Professor Van Norman talked on dairy problems, Dr. Conrad spoke on the essential features of handling milk, emphasizing cleanliness and refrigeration.

WEDNESDAY SESSION.

Dr. A. L. Martin opened the morning session with an interesting talk on potato growing.

He was followed by Dr. Conrad, who tested milk which had been brought to him by the farmers, and explained the Babcock tester.

In the afternoon Dr. Conrad talked on dairy topics, and answered questions.

Last evening a very able address on "Domestic Economy" was delivered by Miss Sara C. Lovejoy, Dean of the Woman's Department of State College. A large audience listened to her.

TODAY'S PROGRAM.

The work of the school is being continued today, with addresses and discussions. Tonight there will be a Round Table Conference.

The conference will be opened by Dr. D. J. Waller, principal of the Bloomsburg State Normal School,

DRY FLY FISHING.

Hints to the Angler—How to Entice Big Fish.

Dry fly fishing is very little practised in this country for the reason that almost all authorities seemed to agree that the wet fly method is the only one suited to our streams. G. M. L. La Branche, in an article in Recreation, declares that a fly "doctored" with a very light application of paraffine is nearly always to be preferred to a wet fly. If an angler once gets "wise" to the right way to cast. A few of the points he emphasizes are as follows:

"If the angler wants big fish—and we all do—the dry fly will take them when nothing else will; but it must be presented properly to the highly 'educated' trout of streams that are much fished. My one great difficulty at the start was a seeming inability to check the impulse to give the fly, after it had alighted, a few spasmodic jerks, thinking to make it look alive. This action is fatal. The small fish will take it, of course, as they will also when it is just floating with the current, but I have never taken a good fish except when my line was quite slack and the fly floating naturally with the current. What is known as the 'drag' also destroys any chance of a rise, but this is not always the fault of the angler. It must be avoided if possible, and the only remedy I can prescribe is practice. If a cast should be bungled, don't become exasperated and snatch the leader and fly off the water in disgust—you court disaster when this is done, for the chances are better than even that you will hang up good and fast in some tree behind you. Permit the fly to drift downstream until it reaches a point nearly opposite you, and then retrieve, and the danger of scaring a fish that you might get on the next cast is minimized.

"The fly should rest on the surface for but an instant, then be lightly whisked off and a false cast or two made in the air to dry it before dropping it again on the water. Each cast must count! If the point of the rod is raised gently at the end of the cast, just before the fly alights, and this elevation continued afterward, the leader will be kept out of water, and the danger of drowning the fly, i. e., drenching it, will be avoided. Care must be taken, however, not to make this action too quick, or a motion will be imparted to the fly which is as unnatural as that caused by the 'drag.'"

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO BE INSPECTED.

Nose, Eyes, Ears and Mouth to Be Examined by State Inspector.

The medical inspection of the schools in the rural districts, which was decided upon by the advisory board of the State department of health, will provide for the examination of the nose, mouth, eyes and ears of every pupil attending the public schools of the Commonwealth that are located in the rural districts outside of the limits of cities, boroughs and townships of the first class.

The resolution adopted by the board was as follows:

"Resolved, Under and by authority of the act of assembly approved the twenty-seventh day of April, A. D., 1905, entitled, 'An act creating a department of health and defining its powers and duties, that the commissioner of health be authorized to make at least twice a year a medical inspection of schools which shall include the examination of the nose, mouth, eyes and ears of every pupil attending the public schools of the Commonwealth that are located in the rural districts outside of the limits of cities, boroughs and townships of the first class."

This inspection which will be done under the supervision of the department's medical inspector in each county, will include approximately 400,000 children. The State examination will be done in such a manner as not to conflict with the family physicians throughout the State.

The advisory board also decided to add hook worm, pellagra and infantile paralysis to the list of the diseases to be reported to the authorities by physicians throughout the State of Pennsylvania.

College President Inaugurated.

With Governor Edwin S. Stuart and George F. Baer, the latter president of the institution's Board of Trustees, as the most eminent speakers, Henry Harbaugh Apple was last Friday inaugurated as president of Franklin and Marshall College, of Lancaster, in the presence of representatives of the leading institutions of learning in the East, and an audience that taxed the capacity of the big Opera House. The most interested spectator was the venerable Mrs. Thomas G. Apple, 83 years old, widow of a former president of the institution, and mother of the incoming executive.

MODERN LANGUAGES' DOOM IN COLLEGES.

Cornell's President Says English Will Furnish the Literary Culture of the Future.

That it is doubtful if modern languages can maintain their place in college curriculums, and that there is no reason why the English language shall not in the future furnish the literary culture, which for generations was derived or associated with the study of Latin and Greek, were some of the statements of President Schurman, of Cornell University, before the Modern Language Association of America, in session in Philadelphia.

"We must recognize that Greek is practically gone as a college subject, and that Latin occupies no such prominent position as it possessed a generation ago," he said.

President Schurman then, replying to the claim of the practical man that modern languages are useful, said that there were so many good books written in the English language that the most omniverous reader would probably supply his literary cravings if he knew no other language but his own.

"If you exclude our scholars and university teachers," he added, "probably not one person out of five hundred who learns modern languages uses them afterwards in conversation or could use them if it were necessery. Teachers and scholars gain their mastery of foreign languages by studying them abroad, and the small circle outside who will need to use them might be advised to do so."

STATE'S BIG INTEREST GAIN.

Enough Earned by Money on Deposit to Run Two Offices.

An increase of nearly 100 per cent. in the amount of interest received on State money on deposit in various banks is shown in the annual report of State Comptroller West, which will be submitted to the Legislature this week. The condition which brought about this increase is unusual and probably will not be duplicated this year because included in the money on deposit and on which interest was paid last year, were considerable sums held by the State pending distribution.

For the fiscal year ending October 31 last, the State received $84,000 in interest, the amount received the previous year having been $47,490. The amount of interest received last year was sufficient to pay the administrative expenses of the offices of the State Comptroller and State Treasurer and leave a balance.

Potatoes Pared by Steam.

A novel machine has been installed in the culinary department of the Normal School. It is a potato parer, operated by a small steam engine, which does clean and rapid work. A bushel of potatoes can be pared by it in from three to five minutes. It not only saves time and labor, but saves much of the waste which was made in the old way.

Are Doctors Any Good?

Foolish question! Yet some people act as if a medicine could take the place of a doctor! The best medicine in the world cannot do this. Have a family doctor, consult him frequently, trust him fully. If we did not believe doctors endorsed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs and colds, we would not offer it to you. Ask your doctor. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

If we did not believe doctors endorsed Ayer's Pills for constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, we would not offer them to you. Ask your own doctor about this.

WASHINGTON

From our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 10, 1910.

For the first year or two of a new Administration the wife of the President is the most observed, discussed and criticized person in Washington, scarcely excepting the Chief Executive himself. The First Lady of the Land as she is persistently and so snobbishly referred to is a staple drawing room subject and her appearance, peculiarities and innovations are known in the humblest homes and basement kitchens. Mrs Taft having long resided in Washington is not exciting the eager interest that a new comer would have been awarded, but what she lacks in novel interest she is making up in the changes she has ordered in the White House and the social precedents she has chosen to disregard. For the present society chooses to reserve its judgment as to the advantages and superiorities of her innovations and criticizes or applauds half heartedly as yet. Tuesday evening the first reception of the season was given in the White House. This is the reception in honor of the Diplomats and is the most brilliant of the year. For many years past the great number of guests invited has made it possible to serve refreshments after the original fashion at these entertainments, and as a matter of fact the great crush of guests had made these affairs almost intolerable from the standpoint of dignity, social satisfaction or comfort. Mrs. Taft has announced in her decided, if somewhat querulous way that she will not have a mob fighting its way through the corridor and up the staircase to the receiving line and that while she may not have so many guests those who are invited shall be entertained after the fashion prevailing in splendid private homes. Consequently a much smaller number was invited for the Diplomatic reception and there was space for everyone to move about in the great East Room and the other apartments set aside for the entertainment of the guests. After having been received by the President, Mrs. Taft and the Cabinet ladies made their way informally and without question of precedence into the State Dining Room where a buffet luncheon of great variety and excellence was served. How does society like it? Well, there is a difference of opinion. Those who were there say it is a magnificent departure. Those who think they should have been there but were not because they were not invited are howling. They talk of the introduction of monarchical manners in place of the simple democratic fashion of the Roosevelts and their predecessors. Its all a question you see of a small square of pasteboard.

This is only one of many changes made by Mrs. Taft in White House affairs and others are promised. For example it gives one quite a start to go to the Executive Mansion and in place of the dignified policemen in uniform who used to look you over to find, instead, two of the handsomest, blackest negro butlers that ever got into dress suits. Mrs. Taft doesn't like policemen at her front door and she says its more homelike to have butlers and more American to have them black. Then in place of the old time steward who was a kind of major domo or at least an understudy to the President himself, and who bought all the provisions for the White House, did the marketing, employed the servants and arranged the entertainments, ordered the decorations, etc., there is now a matronly looking housekeeper, who carries a basket of keys just like they do in the story book houses and who goes to Mrs. Taft every morning for her orders the same as if the White House were just a big home instead of a semi-public building. The capable person is known as Mrs Jaffray and she is said to be giving eminent satisfaction both above and below stairs. Every morning she drives in one of the White House carriages to market and personally selects the perishable foods for the table. I have heard that she indulges in the reprehensible habit of American women of ordering groceries by phone, but then there is too much to be done in such an establishment to busy one self cheese paring. The bills for supplies in these days of dizzy prices are almost apalling for there are twenty-six servants to be fed after the elaborate luncheons and dinners for the President are served. These meals are much less expensive now though than in Rooseveltian days. In that strenuous time there were guests for breakfast, luncheon and dinner, a constant stream of rough-riders, diplomats, authors, reformers and personal friends from every walk of life. Mr. Roosevelt himself is an enormous eater, while Mr. Taft is on a diet which allows him no luncheon. Mrs. Taft is practically an invalid this winter, and none of the children are at the White House except during the school holidays. Mrs. Taft having been a poor girl and the wife of a poor man has learned economy and it is believed that she will manage to save a good part of the President's salary. The regular White House expenses do not come out of the President's pocket. That is to say while he pays the grocery and marketing bills out of his salary the general upkeep of the house is paid by allowance of twenty-five thousand dollars a year. If Mrs. Taft desires new curtains, a new rug or furniture she has simply to make requisition for it and it is delivered at once. There is an appropriation for the President's stables and Congress last session voted a liberal amount for the purchase of two fine automobiles. The President keeps two riding horses and there is a pony for Charlie, the youngest son and several carriage horses. While Mr. Roosevelt was in the White House sixteen horses were kept constantly in the stables.

The President's wife of late years has been assisted by a private Secretary and Miss Hagner who was Mrs. Roosevelt's aide, won almost national fame so completely did she dominate the social life at the White House. People who desired attention at the Executive Mansion if sufficiently astute courted Miss Hagner first. Mrs. Taft declared that this state of affairs shall not be repeated while she is in power. Her Secretary, Miss Blech, it was given out would be kept in the back ground writing letters, issuing invitations, etc. But fate had other things in store for Miss Blech, for before the end of the Inauguration season she had become engaged to a young naval officer, a most desirable parti in the smart set and before next year Mrs Taft will have to look for another young woman who is fitted to discharge the delicate and complex duties of a social secretary who must be at once social arbiter and upper servant.

WHY MEAT IS HIGH.

Too Many People Want the Choice Cuts, Packer Swift Says.

Commenting on the increased cost of meat, one of the questions which Senator Elkins proposes to investigate, John F. Swift, president of Swift & Co., said:—

"I feel that some of the talk about the high price of beef is due to the great demand for the rib and loin cuts, of which there is only about 26 per cent. of the total. The proper preparation and cooking of the cheaper cuts (or 74 per cent of the beef) is being given considerable attention by domestic science authorities, with a view of increasing the use of cheaper cuts, which are just as nutritious as the rib and loin cuts, thereby effecting a saving in the cost of living. This work is commendable and should be continued."

Mr. Swift would not go into the matter more thoroughly. Nor would he discuss the large profits of his company during the past year, as shown in its annual report. It had cleared a net profit of 14 per cent. on the $60,000,000 of stock, on a business of $250,000,000 for 1909. Besides this large net profit, $4,000,000 was added to the surplus and many more millions to the funds for depreciation, maintenance and interest on bonds.

NORMAL HILL IS SLIPPERY.

For the past week Normal Hill has been a popular place for coasters, particularly in the evenings. Sleds, big and little, have been scooting down at a great rate, and continuing in their slide below Iron Street, while some have been going as far as the Court House. It has been many years since such conditions have existed, and many have been taking advantage of the good coasting.

Downstairs With Bombs.

William Dimmick met with a peculiar accident at his home in Wilkes-Barre on Sunday. He was descending the stairs when he slipped and fell. Two dynamite cartridges, such as are used by miners to discharge powder, exploded in his pocket from concussion.

In making up his estimates of Pittsburg's finances for the coming year, Controller E. S. Morrow forgot, at first, to include his own $5000 salary.

A Philadelphia paper made note of this fact as though it were surprised at such an occurrence.

COUNTY STATEMENT

Will not be published this year.

Since 1834 the annual statement of the receipts and expenditures of the county has been published each year in the newspapers. It will no longer appear in this form, because an act of the legislature passed last May renders it unnecessary. About the only way the public can know of the county finances is to go to the Prothonotary's office and examine the statement as passed upon by the county auditors.

Condemns "Soft" Drinks.

Dairy and Food Commissioner James Foust has issued a bulletin in which he outlines what has been done in the way of enforcing the act prohibiting the sale of adulterated or misbranded "soft" drinks. Mr. Foust declares that 80 per cent. of 800 samples taken by his agents were found to be contrary to the law.

"Many of these preparations were nothing but tap water of uncertain purity, sweetened with saccharin, flavored with an essence, often artificially colored with a coal tar dye and actually made foamy with a tincture of soap bark," he writes in denunciation of what is being sold in the State.

"We were also confronted with the use of misleading names and pictures of fruits upon preparations which were wholly artificial, and the use of cayenne pepper to add pungency to so-called ginger ale."

"METZ IN IRELAND"

Al. H. Wilson, German Singing Comedian, at the Columbia.

The scenic equipment of "Metz in Ireland," the new musical play, which Al. H. Wilson, the German dialect comedian, will bring to the Columbia Theatre, Thursday January, 27th, is said to be most attractive. The first act is a reproduction of Dolan's Forge, an historic Irish landmark on the road leading to Kildare; the second act is an interior scene of the famous Klinikilty Castle; while the third act is a moonlight scene, an exterior view of Klinikilty Castle with its surrounding park and lodge houses. Mr. Wilson will no doubt receive a hearty welcome, more especially since he will make his appearance in a new play, which has proven to be one of the successes of the season. The story tells of the adventures and love of a German wanderer in the land of the shamrock, where he becomes a believer in the good little fairies made famous in song and story. The comedy element, of which there is a generous supply, is furnished by Mr. Wilson as the German wanderer, when he mingles with the lads and lasses of the Emerald Isle. There are several new songs with such charming titles as "Love Thoughts," "Erin's Isle," "The Banshee," "The Nightingale Song" and "Mixed German." A competent chorus will render the old-time Irish airs.

COULDN'T BEAT IT.

A number of men were gathered at a point where men are wont to congregate the other day, when one proposed they test their skill in telling the most unlikely and unbelievable yarn. They drew lots as to which one should begin, and the first one said that he was at a moving picture show a few nights ago, when a lady with an immense hat came in and sat down in front of him. As soon as the show started she promptly removed her head gear.

This ended the contest, as all the others at once agreed that they couldn't tell anything that was more improbable

Daniel Boone on the Trail.

If wild animal training is not an actual "calling" it has many of the elements of irresistibility often attributed to vocations of educational, didactical or philanthropic nature. Last year when J. W. Clinton, now playing the part of Daniel Boone, was terribly mangled in an attack by the wolf "Bob" carried by the company, he said he would probably return to the company as soon as he was able. Though warned by the doctors at the hospital, Mr. Clinton insisted on returning to his company less than ten days after he had been torn by the "raw" wolf "Bob." On last Monday night he fainted after having successfully performed with his pack of wolves. Again entering the cage Wednesday Mr. Clinton made a desperate effort to "break" the wolf which tore him, but his weak condition, began to tell on him before he had finished, and it was only the quick work of the other members of the company prevented him from being torn the second time.

These wolves will be seen with "Daniel Boone on the Trail" at Columbia Theatre, Friday evening, January 14th.

COST OF LIVING.

Senator Elkins Says That the Situation is Alarming Over High Prices of Living.

SAYS CONGRESS SHOULD ACT.

The increased cost of living is a subject that is at present receiving much attention. Senator Elkins of West Virginia has introduced a resolution in Congress in regard to the matter. In speaking of it he said:

"I have introduced a resolution for an investigation into the question of increased prices, because we have reached a situation that is alarming. It is affecting almost the entire American people. The cost of living is chasing wages and incomes, and it is going ahead of them in many cases."

The question of why the cost of living is going upward and upward is attracting general attention in Congress, and the pressure from without on that body for an investigation is strong. Generally speaking, the old-time leaders in Senate and House have little sympathy with an inquiry of this sort. Senator Elkins is one of the wealthiest men in Congress and a force in the Senate.

He employs thousands of men in his various lines of business in West Virginia, and a resolution from a source of this kind for a congressional inquiry into the upward movement of prices naturally causes a stir. The Senator in receiving many inquiries about it and many letters of approval.

INQUIRY SEEMS CERTAIN.

That a congressional inquiry of some sort will be forced in the end seems certain. The widespread discontent over the conditions makes it difficult for the leaders to stand in the way of it.

"I don't see how this situation can continue," said Senator Elkins. "As I say the cost of living is outstripping wages and incomes. That brings want and misery to large numbers of families. It means that women and children are not getting proper food and clothing, and that children cannot be sent to school and get either an education or the foundation of an education. And that means our civilization is being injured.

"Food, shelter and clothing are the three absolute essentials of every family. Shelter includes rents and fuel. The cost of all these has advanced alarmingly. They are absolutely fundamental to comfort and health. It is not to be wondered at that the people are concerned about conditions. I hear from it constantly. Men complain to me that wages are not keeping pace, and that their families are in straits in consequence. Yet so far as my own business is concerned, the returns from it are not such as to warrant me in putting up wages. What is to be done in such a situation?

THE DUTY OF CONGRESS.

"I look upon it as the function of statesmanship—or whatever you may call it—when it is clearly perceived that a disaster is threatening the whole nation of 80,000,000 people, to attempt to do what can be done to afford a remedy. As to the increased cost of living. Congress at least can find out some of the causes and make them known. What those causes are I am not prepared to say. For one thing, we are living in an age of extravagance. Speculation is rife. The expansion of the currency supply and the increased production of gold no doubt are factors. All these facts tend to make high prices.

"The country is being settled up so fast, and the population is growing so rapidly—especially the urban population—that we are reaching a state where agricultural production is tested by the demands of our own people. Nations do not exchange gold; they exchange commodities. Our consumption of wheat is up to the limit of production, and we have practically ceased exporting. Of course, we send abroad cotton to the value of $900,000,000 or more. But we pay out $200,000,000 a year to foreign ship owners.

MONEY DRAIN TO EUROPE.

"American tourists take $100,000,000 abroad every year. They spend much of it in luxury and extravagance. Laborers send back to the old country every year $100,000,000. We send $50,000,000 out of the country every year for Christmas presents. Altogether we pay out in one way and another, in actual money which goes abroad, about $500,000,000 every year. In ten years this means $5,000,000,000.

"This drain is doubtless one of the causes of the increasing cost of living and the failure of wages to keep pace; and there are many contributory causes. We must own our own ships, and we must come to more economical ways of living. Think how we are wasting money in comparison with the French. You don't see the average Frenchman going traveling about for pleasure. The French people live on what we waste. Consumption is overtaking production. My resolution provides for an inquiry into the question how far the trusts and monopolies have caused the present conditions. I don't know to what extent they have done so.

AMERICANS EXTRAVAGANT.

"The American people are recklessly extravagant. We must learn to get more out of our farms, and to contract fewer debts and find more ways of paying them. I have introduced this resolution because I feel that here is a situation that absolutely demands the attention of Congress. I want a thorough and impartial investigation that will go to the roots of the whole matter. I don't see how things can go on as they are, and I believe it is our imperative duty to look into the facts."

Senator Elkins proposes to broaden the scope of his resolution in a few particulars. He will seek to have it apply to every important phase of the cost of living—among other things, specifically to the increase of the world's gold supply and monetary supply.

DOCTORS FAILED. RESTORED BY PERUNA.

Catarrh of the Lungs Threatened Her Life.

"I had several hemorrhages of the lungs. The doctors did not help me much and would never have cured me.

"I saw a testimonial in a Peruna almanac of a case similar to mine, and I commenced using it.

"I was not able to wait on myself when I began using it. I gained very slowly at first, but I could see that it was helping me.

"After I had taken it a while I commenced to raise up a stringy, sticky substance from my lungs. This grew less and less in quantity as I continued the treatment.

"I grew more fleshy than I had been for a long time, and now I call myself well."

MISS DE JANON IS FOUND IN CHICAGO

Eloping Heiress and Cohen, the Waiter, Arrested in a Cheap Rooming House

POSED AS FATHER AND CHILD

Dog That the Girl Insisted on Taking Along Leads to Arrest of Rich Philadelphian's Daughter and Man with Whom She Fled.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Roberta de Janon, the Philadelphia heiress, and her friend and admirer, Frederic Cohen, the Bellevue-Stratford waiter, with whom she eloped on December 29, were captured by the police here and held awaiting the arrival of officers from Philadelphia.

They had travelled for thousands of miles, jumping from city to city, in the United States and Canada, in an effort to elude the police and detectives put on their trail by the sixteen-year-old girl's wealthy grandfather. The end came in a squalid boarding house room at No. 68 Superior street, on the North Side, where the couple had been doing the lightest sort of ginger cookie housekeeping.

Miss De Janon and Cohen were practically at the end of their resources. They reached Chicago from Montreal and Halifax with but $1.60. Cohen had pawned some of the girl's jewelry for a trifling sum, but that had been spent.

The girl had determined to end her life. She had written to her grandfather expressing sorrow for running away with Cohen and declaring her intention to jump into the lake.

It is not unlikely that Cohen, convinced that his young companion was desperate and determined to suicide, let the tip reach the police that resulted in their capture. It came from Mrs. Frank Perrin, who ran the rooming house in which they had taken quarters, and was acted on promptly.

According to Mrs. Perrin, the pair were living as father and daughter. Both protested to the police that their relations since leaving Philadelphia had been that of father and daughter.

Cohen, himself, traced their route from the day they eloped out of Philadelphia. They went first to New York where they found difficulty in getting rooms and after remaining over night went to Montreal. The news of the elopement frightened them and they went to St. John, New Brunswick, where they took passage for England on an English steamer.

Cohen said they left the steamer at Halifax because the English officers objected to carrying Tootsie, Miss de Janon's terrier, and the girl would not go on without the dog.

They went from Halifax to Boston and direct to Chicago. They attracted little attention when they first went to the Superior street house, and had since lived quietly.

When the police came to arrest them, Cohen made an emphatic protest, insisting that he was a barber from Montreal. He soon broke down, however, and admitted his identity. Miss de Janon, sobbing bitterly, pleaded with the police to restore her to her grandfather.

In the girl's possession the police found one remarkable letter from Cohen to the girl, dated December 14, in which he begged to think twice before eloping with him.

NO ONE CLAIMS $60,000

St. Louis, Jan. 11.—A fortune of $60,000 in good securities awaits the heirs of Jeremiah Moynihan, an aged ragman, who died on Friday. Apparently in destitute circumstances, Moynihan was to have been buried in Potter's Field to-day, but the public administrator found a key to a safety deposit vault in his effects. The safety box contained bonds worth $60,000.

Moynihan was eighty years old. He was a miser and lived alone, and, as far as is known, he had no relatives in this country.

YEAR FOR LITTLE SUGAR MEN

Sentence of Four of the Havemeyer Checkers.

New York, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Edward C. Boyle, John R. Coyle, Thomas Keene and Patrick J. Hennessey, checkers on the Williamsburg docks of the Havemeyers & Elder refinery, who were convicted with Oliver Spitzer on December 17, 1909, of conspiracy to defraud the Government by means of false entries of sugar, were sentenced by Judge Martin in the United States Circuit Court to serve a year each in the penitentiary in Blackwell's Island. Spitzer's bail was extended to February 1 and sentence was suspended until that date because he has a surgical operation to undergo.

Saves Brother, Then is Drowned.

Atlantic City, N. J., Jan. 11.—Miss Martha Halloway, fourteen years old, saved the life of her brother Edward, two years younger, but was herself drowned when they broke through the ice of Doughty's mill pond, on which they were skating. Mr. Halloway, their father, is engineer of the Atlantic City water works, at Absecon.

HUGHES IN MESSAGE CALLS FOR REFORMS

Stands by Demand for Direct Nominations—Would End Bookmaking and White Slave Traffic.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 13.—In two of the most important documents sent out from the Executive Chamber Governor Hughes called upon the State Legislature to defeat the proposed income tax amendment to the federal constitution, again urged a law providing for direct primaries and announced the gift of 10,000 acres of land and $1,000,000 from Mrs. Mary W. Harriman for a great public park on the Hudson River.

One of the documents was the Governor's annual message to the Legislature. The attack on the proposed income tax amendment was made the subject of a special message. The Governor analyzes the amendment from a constitutional standpoint, quoting eminent judical opinions to justify his determined opposition, and recommending that the proposed constitutional amendment providing for an income tax be not ratified by the Legislature of this state.

The Governor in the general message urged amendments of the Penal Code to prevent oral betting, or bookmaking without the recording of bets, and the so-called "white slave" traffic. A renewal of his recommendation for the inclusion of all telephone and telegraph companies under the jurisdiction of the Public Service commissions was distinctly brief, even curt. Extension of the state's agricultural work, the state development of water powers and the adoption of a more liberal forest preservation policy were other features of the message which were expected by the legislators.

Entirely new was the acknowledgment of a gift by Mrs. E. H. Harriman of a tract of land of 10,000 acres near her estate and $1,000,000 in cash to acquire other land for a great state park in the highlands of the Hudson. In the body of the message and in an appendix giving in detail correspondence between the Governor, George W. Perkins, president of the Palisades Park Commission, and others there was set forth a comprehensive plan for the acquisition of the splendid park, to include most of the beautiful territory of the Palisades region, with a river frontage and a great roadway along the base of the Palisades. Gifts by John D. and William Rockefeller, J. Pierpont Morgan, Mrs. Sage, Miss Helen Miller Gould, George W. Perkins and others amounting to $1,625,000 were announced, with the declaration that $2,500,000 more had been raised. To meet this New York State is to appropriate $2,500,000 to acquire land and build roads and to remove the new state prison from Rockland County to some place where it will not interfere with this park work.

Charter revision for New York City, the passage of measures to assure more economical condemnation proceedings, comprehensive automobile legislation, with a license tax; proper legislation to provide better compensation for injury of employees along the lines of the report of the Comission on employers' liability, the lessening of special legislation for municipalities and a definite system of budget making by the state were urged by Governor Hughes.

Other recommendations are:

That the Governor appoint a cabinet of State administrative heads, accountable to him, in place of the present elective State officers. This would require constitutional amendment.

That the New York ballot be simplified.

Publicity of all campaign expenditures.

Direct nominations.

That it be made a crime, with severe penalty, for a motorist to seek to escape after an accident to which his act has contributed.

AN OYSTER TRUST CHARGED

Mississippi Proceeds to Break Alleged Combination.

Gulfport, Miss., Jan. 11.—Alleging violation of the state anti-trust laws, proceedings have been brought here against the Lopez, Dunbar & Dukate Company, which is charged with controlling the oyster industry of Mississippi and restricting competition.

Penalties aggregating $2,225,000 are asked, or at the rate of $5,000 a day since September 4, 1908. On that date it is alleged that the defendants secured the conveyance of all independent oyster packing plants into one association. The suit is brought for the state by Wirt Adams, state revenue agent.

HOSPITAL SWALLOWED UP

Seven Die When Cave-in of Disused Mine Occurs.

Vienna, Jan. 11.—An extraordinary accident occurred at Raibl, in Carintia. The sudden subsidence of the site of a disused min completely engulfed a small hospital building. Not a vestige of the hospital remained, and only a huge cavity in the ground was to be seen.

Cured Lunatic Kills Wife and Child.

FITZGERALD WINS BOSTON MAYORALTY

Will Control Sufficient Votes in New City Council to Control Municipal Government

NO NEWSPAPER WAS WITH HIM

Boston, Jan. 13.—Boston, in the first partiees election held under her new charter, elected former Mayor John F. Fitzgerald to fill again the Mayor's chair, this time for a four-year term, giving him 47,172 votes and a plurality of 1,414 over his nearest opponent, James J. Storrow, banker, former president of the Chamber of Commerce and former chairman of the School Board, who received 45,757. The most remarkable feature of the election to many was the small vote of 1,816 given the present Mayor, George A. Hibbard, who received 38,000 votes two years ago, being elected on a "reform" ticket, over Fitzgerald. The fourth Mayorty aspirant, Nathaniel H. Taylor, found only 613 supporters. Total, 95,358.

While the figures above were those announced in City Hall, Mr. Storrow's campaign manager had other returns, and on these based a statement given out early in the evening that while he acknowledged the election of Fitzgerald by an apparent plurality of 291 votes he would ask for a recount.

The campaign, noteworthy in many ways, was easily Boston's greatest. A record total vote, 95,125, more than 84 per cent. of the total registration, was cast. The largest previous vote was cast in 1905, when Fitzgerald was first elected Mayor, the total vote then being 92,954, of which Fitzgerald received 44,171.

MRS. CLEVELAND'S PENSION

Senator Root's Proposed $5,000-a-Year Grant Will Be Voted Quickly.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Provision is made in a bill introduced in the Senate by Senator Root for a $5,000 pension for Mrs. Frances Folsom Cleveland, widow of President Cleveland. There will be no objection to the measure, and it will become law at the earliest practicable moment.

This measure is in line with precedents. Mrs. Lincoln in 1870 was voted $3,000, which was increased to $5,000 in 1882. At the same time Mrs. Garfield, Mrs. Polk and Mrs. Tyler were granted pensions of $5,000 a year. Mrs. McKinley was given a like pension in 1902. Mrs. Cleveland was granted the free use of the mails in 1909.

PITTSBURG HAS "POGONIP"

Hang an Apron of Cheesecloth Over Your Mouth, or You'll Get It.

Pittsburg, Jan. 13.—Henrry Pennywitt, weather forecaster here, announced that Pittsburg air is supercharged with "pogonip," and he urged that people outdoors should hang over their mouths and nostrils a little apron of cheesecloth.

"Pogonip," he explained, is Indian for "white death" and is caused by inhaling fog which has congealed into spicula of ice. He first learned of the disease when stationed on the Utah and Nevada plateaus where the Indians dread it fearfully. It develops a form of pneumonia which is usually fatal.

GREAT PRIZES FOR AIRSHIPS

Paris, Jan. 13.—The International Aeronautical Federation announces that the prizes for the Carnivals of 1910 will range from $40,000 to $120,000 at the European contests, while $200,000 will be offered for the American events.

The revised dates for the meet in the United States provide for contests from Oct. 18 to Nov. 2. The first week will be given over to competition for the International Balloon Cup, and the second week will be aviation week proper.

Governor Feeds the Birds.

Topeka, Jan. 13.—Kansas quail and other birds are dying in large numbers from starvation. The ground has been covered with snow and ice for forty-two days and the birds are unable to find grains or ground seeds to eat. "Kills Crime Germs," Says Chicago's Assistant Chief.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—Chicago is to have a new city jail that will be a model for all jails, according to plans now in the hands of Herman F. Schuettler, assistant chief of police.

Instead of being in the damp and unsanitary basement, all the 150 cells will be on the top floor of the building. Then instead of the regulation dark roof Chief Schuettler has provided for a heavy glass roof, so that every cell will be bathed in sunlight constantly, making the cells cheerful and sanitary instead of breeding places for disease.

SAYS CANADA WILL FEED THIS COUNTRY

Sydney Fisher, Dominion's Minister of Agriculture, Extols His Land's Resources

HAS GAINED 300,000 AMERICANS

Declares Eighty Thousand Crossed Line Last Year, Carrying $65,000,000 with Them—Wheat Producing Ability—Planning for Conservation.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 13.—Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture of the Dominion of Canada, who was the guest of the evening at the January banquet of the Beacon Society at the Algonquin Club entertained the members with a glowing account of the present condition and the outlook for the future of Canada's agricultural interests. Mr. Fisher professed to foresee the time when the United States will have ceased, by reason of congestion of population, to be the food producing nation that it is now, and he assured his hearers that Canada will then be abundantly able to feed this country.

To show how Canada is developing her resources, he said that in ten years her products of agriculture have increased from $160,000,000 to $563,000,000, and yet she has only touched the edge of her possibilities. And all that production is of high class, he added.

"Canada has 213,000,000 acres of available agricultural land," he said "yet only 12,000,000 are under crops at present, 7,000,000 acres of that total in wheat, producing annually about 147,000,000 bushels of No. 1 Northern or hard wheat that American millers have to have to keep up the standard of Minneapolis flour.

"Of the total of 213,000,000 acres, 70,000,000 acres are capable of producing first class crops of wheat. Three provinces in the Northwest can produce 1,000,000,000 bushels of wheat, or one and a half times more than the whole United States produced last year.

"The immigration to Canada is about equally divided among natives of Great Britain, the Continent of Europe and the United States, but the latter are preferred. Last year 80,000 Americans went across the border, carrying $65,000,000 to add to Canadian wealth. In the last five years 300,000 Americans have gone to Canada, carrying $200,000,000. Moreover, owing to English conservatism, capitalists from the United States have been getting the cream of Canadian investment.

"Canada, like the United States, has been wasting her natural resources in the past, but she has seen the folly of it and hopes to be able to help the United States in the conservation of those resources in the future. She is trying to make laws that shall discourage tying up the natural resources beyond the control of the people, and endeavoring to provide that some of the profits of those resources in future generations shall go to the people instead of going exclusively to fatten the pocketbooks of individual exploiters. She is also trying to plan her systems of transportation so that the people will get a fair share of the great agricultural wealth of the country.

"Canada is creating an army and a navy, which will not be a menace to the United States, however, but through the co-operation of the military and naval forces of Great Britain and the United States will help to compel a world peace."

PAYS $2,284,418 CASH

H. C. Frick Company Buys 2,644 Acres of Coking Coal.

Uniontown, Pa., Jan. 11.—A cash transaction involving over $2,000,000 in connection with the sale of coal lands is disclosed here in the filing of deeds in the County Recorder's office. The Clairton Iron Company has sold to the H. C. Frick Coke Company 2,644 acres of coking coal and 296 acres of surface land in this county for $2,284,418 cash—$850 an acre for the coal land and $125 an acre for the surface land. This is a record price for coal lands in this section.

The Frick Company is said to have taken the land to provide against future shortage, and it is not expected to be developed at once.

MESSAGE ON EVILS OF RAILWAYS AND TRUSTS

Washington, Jan. 13.—Monopolies and predatory combinations must be restrained and punished until all unjust competition is ended, says President Taft in a joint message to Congress embodying his views on the interstate commerce law and the Sherman antitrust law.

In order that there may be no contrariety of decision in cases appealed by corporations to the different United States district courts from orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission, he recommends the establishment of a court of the United States, to be known as the "United States Court of Commerce," to which appeals may be taken. He would have this court composed of five judges designated from among the Circuit Judges of the United States.

The President recommends that the court shall sit at Washington. The establishment of the Commerce Court will necessitate the appointment of five additional judges, who may be distributed to the circuits where there is the greater volume of business.

The President recommends that the Interstate Commerce Law be amended so that hereafter no railroad company doing interstate business shall directly or indirectly acquire interests of any kind in any railroad or corporation competing with it.

For the protection of minority stockholders he recommends a proviso that such prohibition shall not operate to prevent any corporation now owning not less than one-half the entire outstanding capital stock in any other railroad company from acquiring all the remainder of such stock. Any company operating a railroad under lease executed for a term of not less than twenty-five years shall have reversionary ownership of the demised railroad.

The President recommends legislation to prevent future over issue of stocks and bonds by interstate carriers.

In industrial combinations called trusts, the President says, the interstate and foreign business far exceeds the business done in any one State. This fact, he says, will justify granting of federal charters to such combinations under such limitations as will secure compliance with the anti-trust law.

To this end he recommends a granting of federal law for the charters to corporations engaged in interstate commerce, protecting them from undue interference by the State and relying on national suprvision to prevent abuses which have arisen under State control.

Such a law would subject the real and personal property only to the same taxation as is imposed by the States and would require complete reports to be filed at regular intervals. Holding companies will be forbidden.

The President declares the Sherman Anti-trust Law does not need amendment, and that the series of decisions by the Supreme Court renders a strong reason for leaving the act as it is.

The public, the President says, must disabuse itself of the idea that any distinction between "good trusts" and "bad trusts" can be introduced into the statute.

TAFT BACK OF FOOD INQUIRY

Senator Elkins Consults with President and Receives Encouragement.

Washington, Jan. 12.—President Taft has swung the weight of his administration in favor of the demand of the people for a thorough and prompt investigation into the increasing cost of living.

Senator Elkins conferred with the President on the subject and was assured by the President of hearty co-operation.

The President is committed to no plan of investigation, but wants something done to determine the reason for existing conditions, that there may be corrective legislation.

KING AND HIS CABINET.

The selection of a cabinet for presidents and kings is a most important and serious undertaking. Peculiar fitness is necessary for executive officers and royal counsellors. You cannot imagine King Edward going down to the Liverpool docks to find a prime minister, or President Taft searching among the fishermen of Marblehead for a Secretary of State.

Yet that is precisely what the King of this kingdom did. He deliberately passed by the wise, and influential and mighty and took the majority of his earthly cabinet from the fishing boats of Galilee. Imagine the scene. In the background the lake in the grey morning, the mist slowly rising, the deserted boats drawn up on the shore. An old man, Zebedee, standing with a bewildered look upon his face, trying to imagine what he would do without his sons, and what they would do without him; and in the foreground five men walking along, four of them without the least idea of where they were going or of what they were going to do. That is the beginning of the king's cabinet. Could anything be more ridiculous? Doubtless other fishermen talked it over among themselves that day and said, "Simon Peter and Andrew, James and John have left their nets and gone off after that man, Jesus of Nazareth, who imagines himself a king. He has made them believe that he is the Jewish Messiah and that he is to set up the kingdom of heaven upon earth, and they have forsaken everything and gone off on a fool's errand after him. Well. They will soon realize their mistake, they will be back again. Fortunate for them Zebedee will keep the fishing boats and the tackle, that they may have something to fall back upon when they discover how they have been deluded."

It is almost impossible for us to realize what it meant in those days, to those people, when Christ made up his cabinet. Where was there ever such a beginning? How could anything be more ridiculous in worldly eyes—weakness in the Leader who had such dreams of universal dominion, weakness in the followers to leave a paying business of which they knew so much to take up a stupendous task of which they knew absolutely nothing.

And yet, as we look back upon that scene, we recognize it now as one of the grandest and most logical beginnings the world has ever seen. No wonder Paul says of it, "God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise, and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things that are mighty, that no flesh should glory in His presence."

The trouble with almost all men who enter the service of Christ is that they have so much to unlearn before they can qualify as witnesses, they know so many things that are not so, they are so much in love with their own ideas and opinions, they have such an overwhelming conviction of their own importance, that they consciously taint the water of life with their own personalities, and hide their Master behind themselves. They are not satisfied to deliver His message until they have rewritten it and taken the heart out of it with their explanations, which do not explain. The king's cabinet was not troubled with any of these things. They were to be witnesses unto Him and they knew no more than to intelligently repeat just what they had seen and heard. They never attempted to argue a case, they took the witness box and unflinchingly told just exactly what they knew of Christ. They had nothing to unlearn, they were not troubled with the intellectual, social, spiritual, moral, political, sectarian difficulties of the high-browed professors and worldings of their day. Their minds were like unsoiled paper on which the King could write his messages to suit Himself. They carried the seed of the kingdom in untainted vessels, and all they had to do was to sow it far and wide. They were to be merely the echo of His voice without any attempt to originate ideas or to speak their own message. As itinerant preachers whose work would demand physical stamina and obliviousness of weather conditions, those brawny, sun-burned, rugged Galilee fishermen were ideal timber for the sills of the spiritual temple Christ was about to erect. The more one thinks of it, the more one comes to realize that when the King formed His cabinet He showed His infinite wisdom in the selection of the men who were to carry on His work in the development of His kingdom. No wonder the apostle in describing the church long afterward said, "We are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ, Himself, being the chief corner stone."

The Zoological Press Bulletin.

CAUSE OF DEFECTIVE FRUIT.

Commencing his letter with the statement: "I have an orchard of a few hundred fruit trees, of all kinds, but for the last few years our fruit has been extremely faulty, apparently all of it stung by insects and worm eaten," a Monroe county man wrote Professor H. A. Surface, State Zoologist, Harrisburg, for information, and also inquired about "oil emulsions."

Professor Surface replied: "I have at hand your letter stating that you find your fruits defective, and asking what to do to prevent such troubles. I beg to say that the first thing to do is to find out just what is the cause of such defects. You can send damaged fruits, leaves and twigs to this office for examination. The cause of each imperfection will be given. Then the next step is to apply the right remedy in the right way, with the right material, in the right proportion, and at the right time. All these things are necessary for success. Not one can be over looked. For example, the insect making the wormy fruit, of which you write, is, doubtless, the codling moth. The preventive is to spray with an arsenical poison, such as Paris green or arsenate of lead, using either one-third pound of the former, or two pounds of the latter, in fifty gallons of water or Bordeaux mixture, applying it thoroughly as a spray blown with force from above the fruit so as to reach into the blossom ends of the young fruits just after the petals have fallen, and again in ten days or two weeks.

"If you do not have any certain kind of pest present, or liable to appear soon, it is unnecessary to spray for it. For example, the lime sulphur and oils, used when the trees are dormant, are for San Jose scale and other scale insects. If such are not present, there is no need of going to the expense and trouble of spraying. However, you should be certain whether your trees have San Jose scale. To be sure of this you should send to this office some clippings or twigs Get twigs showing the ring that was last winter's terminal resting bud, from which the 1909 growth started. It is here that we will be most likely to find the Scale, if present. Spacimens can be sent by mail. Your spraying operations should be in accordance with what we find.

"You ask about the use of oil emulsions. I presume you mean the commercial preparations. I do not recommend them, for the fact that they do not always kill the Scale without injury to the trees. Many orchards in this and other States have been entirely destroyed by them. You can not afford the risk. The commercial oils may be all right for two years, but the next year cause thousands of dollars of damage in the same orchard, as was experienced by one of Pennsylvania's most prominent and successful fruit growers. At Mont Alto, Franklin county, an owner lost between five and ten thousand dollars worth of fruit in 1909 by using oil sprays, although in 1908 and the year before, the results with the same materials on the same trees had been apparently good."

Missing Heiress Found.

Miss Elberta de Janon, the granddaughter of Robert Buist, who disappeared from Philadelphia two weeks ago, in company with Ferdinand Cohen, a waiter at the Bellevue-Stratford, was found on Monday with the man in Chicago. The police have been conducting a careful search throughout the country. The couple had succeeded in concealing their whereabouts, however. While traveling they went from Philadelphia to Atlantic City, thence to New York, then to Montreal, Canada, and from there to St. Johns, N. B. There they took a steamer bound for England, but left the ship at Halifax, and went from there to Boston and thence to Chicago, where they were located.

Both were brought back to Philadelphia, where the girl was put in care of her grandfather, and the man was locked up pending prosecution.

With the mercury three below zero, Ohio State University was compelled to close on Monday in all departments except one, because of the lack of coal.

A BLIND MAN

Has some excuse for not reading his home paper.

Then there are others — those who are so blind that they won't see.

STATE TREASURER ELECT DEAD.

Death causes a situation for which there are no precedents in the State.

State Treasurer-elect, J. A. Stober, died suddenly at his home in Lancaster county on Monday. He was in apparently good health when he retired Sunday night, but his wife found him dead in bed next morning.

He was elected at the November election, and would have entered upon his duties on May 2nd.

His death has caused a peculiar situation. Not since the adoption of the constitution in 1873 has any similar case occurred, and state officials say there are no precedents by which to be guided.

The question that has arisen is, how shall the vacancy be filled? Shall the Governor appoint, or does the schedule for the constitutional amendments, adopted last Novembet, prevent an election of a State Treasurer until 1912?

The matter will be referred to the Attorney General by the Governor for decision.

Concert at Normal School.

The date of the concert of the Redpath Grand Quartette, in the Normal Auditorium, has been changed from January 21 to Tuesday evening, January 18.

The quartette is composed of Mr. Cecil James, Dr. Ion Jackson, Dr. Carl Duft, and Mr. Frederick Martin. Their supreme musical ability makes possible the rendition of a wealth of the great literature written by the master composers, which must forever remain lost to all but the fortunate few who live in or near the great cities. However, it is not to be implied that the programs of the quartet will be limited merely to the classics, for they will sing the folk-songs of the Southland in their soft negro dialect and syncopated rhythms; they will sing the good old G. A. R. songs with such a dash and thrill that you will think you are again sitting around the camp-fire with the old comrades who have been dead a dozen years; they will sing "Home, Sweet Home," "Annie Laurie," "Suwanee River" and the simple songs you love so well, and will call up out of the past a flood of childhood's memories that will dim your eyes; and then they will sing some bit of exquisite, irresistible nonsense which will send you home with a lighter, stronger heart—refreshed for tomorrow's battle in the work-a-day world.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

THE COUNTY'S EXPENSES FOR 1909.

The statement of expenditures of the county, just completed by Commissioners' Clerk Smith shows a total expenditure for 1909 of $58,014.60.

Of this amount, $4,575 21 was the total of the prison, penitentiary and asylum bills, exclusive of the county jail bills, with the greater part of the amount going to the Danville Hospital for the Insane and the Eastern penitentiary. The Wernersville Asylum for the Criminal Insane and the Warren Hospital for the Insane received a share of it.

Elections held in the county during the last year cost $5,494 21, the largest amount in the county history, while assessors were paid $4,005.92.

The court house expenses, including the salaries of the Commissioners, their clerk and janitor, as well as all repairs, gas and electric light and telephone bills, was $7,192.78; the total expense at the jail for the year was $3,139.57 and printing and stationery cost, $1,224.18. Blank books cost, $359.65. For fighting forest fires there was paid the sum of $145.88 and $510 was paid for the burial of soldiers and their headstones. Taxes refunded amounted to $68.35.

The money expended was for the maintenance of the court, amounted to $6,811.17 while Commonwealth costs approximated the figure of $,020.47.

Road and bridge views for the year and their inspections cost $88.80, a small figure and there was but one inquest held during the year, which cost $35. Repairs to county bridges necessitated the expenditure of $7,192.79.

Second Class Mail's Cost.

Particular attention is devoted to second class mail matter in the annual report of the Third Assistant Postmaster General, made public on Tuesday. Postmaster General Hitchcock in his annual report already recommended an increase in the charge for transporting through the mails weekly and monthly magazines. Mr. Travers in the report says:—

"The cost of handling second class matter per pound having been estimated, by your special committee, which has recently rendered its report, to be slightly over 9 cents per pound, based upon the special weighing of the mails in 1907, the cost of handling the above items of second class matter is approximately $64,000,000 in excess of the revenue at 1 cent a pound ($7,232,331.82) derived therefrom."

A detailed report is made of the issuanee of postage stamps, stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, and postal cards. In every instance the statements show a large increase, due to the country's prosperity.

Memory by Smell.

The sense of smell, though almost a lost sense with modern man, as is well known, sometimes brings back to memory the strongest visions, thoughts and impressions of the past. Tip met a Scotch terrier, an old friend, he had not seen for a year. She deliberately nosed and deliberated in a most human way for a space of twelve or fifteen seconds, then memory and recognition came with a rush in a wild tide of gamboling, groveling barking delight.

The Egyptian Locust.

Great success has attended the efforts of the troops and coast guards in Egypt to combat the locust plague by destroying the young insects without wings.

Nervous Prostration For Three Years

"Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine cured me of a period of nervous prostration of over three years duration, and the Anti-Pain Pills are as necessary to us as the roof of our house. They have been household remedies with us for many years."

WM. J. LOUGHRAN,
1214 Catherine St.,

Much sickness is due to nervous troubles. Headache, dizziness, epilepsy and insanity are nervous troubles. Then there is a large class of disorders which arise from a weakness of the nerves of an organ or part, as weak lungs, heart, stomach, kidney, bladder, eyes, etc. Dyspepsia and indigestion are usually the result of nervous disorders.

Restorative Nervine

soothes the irritated nerves, and assists the nerve cells to generate nerve force.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by all druggists. If the first bottle fails to benefit, your druggist will return your money.
